Excerpt of pertinent information :

From Source ☒ comment: IVANOVICI, who received instructions from Gen. RADESCU to activate this service, has informed the General that Source will be in charge of the network in France. . . While this is not the first time that Source has reported being asked for data on Romanian Communists in France by IVANOVICI, it is as yet Source's most outspoken statement that Col. IVANOVICI is working for RADESCU.

1. Col. Daniel IVANOVICI has received instructions from Gen. Nicolae RADESCU to activate the organization of an anti-Communist Romanian intelligence network. The General wrote that funds will be placed at the Colonel's disposal. It seems that 30 million dollars of Romanian money has been unblocked in the United States.

2. As a beginning, Col. IVANOVICI will supervise the compilation of an up-to-date list of Communist Romanians in all the countries of Europe and South America for the General. He will also conduct an over-all search for suitable candidates to serve later as clandestine radio operators in Rumania and as secret couriers to and from Rumania.

3. Gen. RADESCU and Col. IVANOVICI appear to be embarrassed in recruitment of potential agents and operators, in that they both fear that the only suitable persons can be found in the Iron Guard groups. The General wrote IVANOVICI that the Romanian political parties in the United States had succeeded in convincing influential Americans that the Iron Guard is a dangerous crowd, therefore, it was in poor standing. RADESCU requested that IVANOVICI confer with the priest, Vasile BOLDEANU (over)
